“ Remembering my sweet Aunt Sheryl or Sheryl Ann as she was to me. She was a beautiful soul full of love and kindness for others. My childhood memories are filled with wonderful times spent with the Hext family full of laughter, fun, and tenderness. Sheryl was a very special person in my life and helped me through some of my darkest times. When my father was terminally ill and my mom was focused by necessity on caring for him and also taking care of our needs, Sheryl was there to scoop us up and show us some happiness and genuine love during that difficult time. My Aunt Sheryl was truly selfless and generous to a fault. She was a mother hen (in a wonderful way), caring for her flock and making sure all were nurtured and loved.

Sheryl also had a special Aunt - our Aunt Fran who looked after her and then later in life Sheryl devoted herself to caring for Fran as she struggled with cancer making her life immeasurably better.

Sheryl overcame any obstacle that came her way and made the absolute best of any adversity. Nothing ever stopped her from being the loving person she was no matter what! Sheryl loved children and I'm very sure she had many beautiful memories of her family and grandchildren.

The photo I've attached was one of the last times Diana and I visited her at the ranch. Hummingbirds were swarming us as she had several feeders nearby. It was very symbolic of her love for animals and her kind and nurturing spirit.

From picnics in parks to horseback rides to ranching, she made it all special for those she loved. You will forever be in my heart and I will always be grateful for you.

Much Love,

Chris Oldham
