“ I worked with Tom and he was my friend. I loved his stories and admired him. I visited with him briefly about two weeks before he passed and he made me laugh out loud - he always did. He will be missed.

“ Tom was my cousin, Jerry Crawford's best friend, and through this relationship I was honored to be Tom's friend also. We had many fun hunting adventures together and lots and lots of laughter and fun. Tom was truly a wonderful man I enjoyed spending time with. The years have gone by but the memories and the love for Tom will not fade. Tom, may your family cherish the memories they have and know your friends loved you and will miss you. May God bless each of you as you walk through this time of loss.
