

Valrea Patton

May 24, 1931 - September 27, 2014

Valrea (Doran) Patton of San Saba went to be with her Lord and Savior on Saturday, September 27, 2014 at her home.

Valrea was born on May 24, 1931 in San Saba, Texas to Will H. and Ethal Walker Doran. She married Arlie Myers on September 30, 1950 and together they had 2 daughters. After 36 years of marriage, Arlie passed away and Valrea married Bryant Patton in 1987.

Valrea was a lifelong resident of San Saba. When her father was the sheriff in San Saba County, he and his family lived in the county jail. She worked many years as a CNA at Eventide Nursing Home and San Saba Nursing Home where she truly enjoyed caring for the residents. She loved her work, her family and her family get togethers with everyone around her. She preferred to be outside gardening and be on the go all the time. She especially enjoyed Thanksgiving at Darlene's house and her Doran family reunion in Wimberly. She was a member of the Central Baptist Church in San Saba and always looked forward to church.

Valrea is survived by 2 daughters; Arlene Watson and husband, Welton, of San Saba, Darlene Daniel and her husband, Slade, of Carlsbad, Texas. 4 grandchildren; Teresa Hixon and husband, Rusty, of Irving, Becky Batt and husband, Tim, of San Antonio, Texas, Miranda Szaloy and husband, Mike, of Crane and Laramie Daniel and wife, Brittney, of Carlsbad, Texas: Great grandchildren Daniel Hixon and Mikayla Hixon of Irving, Timothy Hixon and wife, Sarah, of Sherman, Isaac Batt, Jackson Batt, Kaedon Batt and Lily Batt of San Antonio, Texas, Cyleigh Daniel, Lyla Daniel and Jymma Daniel of Carlsbad, Texas, Audrey Fain, Wesley Szaloy and Leah Szaloy of Crane, Texas: 1 sister; Wanda Siler of Port Clinton, Ohio.

Valrea was preceded in death by her parents; husbands, Arlie Myers and Bryant Patton; sisters, Nelle Aylor and Margy Jones; brothers; Bill Doran and Burton Doran.

Family requests donations be made to American Cancer Society.

“ We are so saddened to hear of our dear friend Valrea passing. She was a wonderful friend and a blessing to us. Her beautiful smile and her loving hugs will be missed.
We are praying for all of the family.
Very sorry that we cannot be there for the service.
