“ I cannot describe how I feel right at this moment, My heart has always searched for you. You know names would come up, stories and id be on fire to find you. Then life would slip in a crises here a got to do there and my thoughts were diverted. My prayers for you family . I always loved you, Ive always missed you, But now I know ill surly see you again , Wait on me. In heaven we will swing again and tell each other our secrets. I will see you again on the other side my dear friend.

“ I am heart broken over the loss of one of my best friends since the 8th grade a span of 36 years. I loved her like a sister. We shared many things over the years high school, getting in trouble with our mothers, marriage, divorce, having children and grandchildren, graduations an the death of loved ones to name a few. I am lost without her I could always count on her to tell me the truth weather I liked it or asked for it. I loved her sense of humor she had a way of expressing herself like no one else I know. I love you Vickie I will cherish your memory an look forward to seeing you an hugging you again one day. My love goes out to her family may you find joy in your memories of her, may the Lord heal you an comfort you during this difficult time.

“ I always thought a lot of Vickie. I remember when James called me to tell me that Vickie was in the hospital to deliver James Brandon Lester. I was the teacher for Industrial Engines at Midland College and Vickie would come to some of the classes with her husband. I always worried about Vickie falling when she came to class because of stuff around the shop part. I know I will pray for Vickie and the rest of the family. This is a bad loss, she was so young. I would love to hear from some of the family.

“ So sorry for your loss. I am in shock. Vickie and I had so much fun together. She was a kind soul with lots of love in her heart. I will miss her forever. I've loved her since I first met her twenty nine years ago. She will forever be in my thoughts. I will love her forever. My heart is broken into a million pieces at this loss. God bless her and her family.
