“ Kay was a good friend of mine in Rising Sun High School in Rising Sun, Md. We had so much fun together - always had something to laugh about. I've missed her and was hoping to see her again. So sorry that won't happen. I keep in touch with and laugh with her sister Lynda. My thoughts are with all of her family

*Kay was a wonderful friend of mine for many years. My children all loved her and always had her bring her deviled eggs to all of our parties. We were all sad when we heard of her death, but we also knew that she will now be with her son Jim who she always talked about with me because my son Jimmy also died young. I will miss her terribly but know she is in a better place. Condolences to the whole family.
