

Wandah Cordell Dean

July 25, 1926 - January 30, 2013

Wandah Cordell Perry Dean was born July 26, 1926, first born of Ross and Mary Perry. Cordell lived in Cherokee, Texas most of her life with the exception of a year or two when she was very young, they moved to Ponotoc and while attending business school in Austin. She met the love of her life Tom Dean and married on August 25, 1950. They lived on Cherokee Ranch and then on Tom's dad's ranch when Gwen was born.

Cordell worked in the San Saba Tax Assessor's office until the family went in the turkey business. She and husband, Tom also raised Brahman and Hereford cattle. Cordell loved the ranching business and worked alongside her husband.

Cordell is survived by her daughter, Gwen Dean, of Cherokee; brother, Wayland Perry, of Cherokee; sisters, Willena McKneely, of Cherokee and Naomi Barker, of Kerrville; very special niece, Sharon Blossman and husband David, of San Saba; many, many cousins, nephews, nieces and friends.

Preceding Cordell in death were her parents, Ross and Mary Perry; mother and father-in-law, Winna and Dennis Dean; brothers, Billy Mac, Maurice and Dale Perry; brothers-in-law, W.C. McKneely and Lewis Brown; sister-in-law, Marjorie Dean Brown; and husband, Tom Dean.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Cherokee.

Tribute Wall

LK

“ Our deepest sympathy.

Leroy and Gracie Ketchum - February 01, 2013 at 11:07 AM

LS

“ Our sincere sympathy goes to all of you in this time of loss. Our prayers will be with you.

Larry & Yvonne Shivener - January 31, 2013 at 11:40 AM