“ We send our deepest sympathy and respect to this dear family. Wendy fought a battle few of us can understand. The challenges of this illness were tremendous. She was so lively and determined. You loved her so well both in her healthy years and in her illness. You have been so faithful. We lift you up in prayers and thoughts.

“ Dear Martha and family, I'm so sorry for your loss. I will always remember Wendy as a vibrant spirited teenager, who did round-off back handsprings down the football field! Her beautiful smile lit up any room she entered. May she Rest In Peace now that she is no longer in pain. Prayers for peace and comfort. Love and hugs to you all. 💕
