“ My first encounter with W.D was very early on in Ms McMahan class,friendly from the word go.I was fortunate enough to be in his company for the next few years.Even at such a young age W.D was a warm light.You were sure to laugh,have great conversations,but mostly to be seen and heard.I was only able to see him a handful of times after we moved away but we stayed in touch via phone and shared some of life's ups and downs of adulthood and im grateful to him for that.Im sure there are many like me.You will be missed sweet man I love you. I'll see you on the other side of the moon where love is abundant and I know you feel at home.Teri Cranford

“ My heart goes out to his children, Lisa Beth, and those who were closest to him. I enjoyed my childhood days with "Dubby", throwing rocks in the creek, being scared by his stories of snakes that would "git'cha", and his beautiful smiling face. We stayed in touch off and on throughout the years, like cousins do, and I just can't believe he's gone.
"Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted."
