“ Bill lived a half a block south of us on Yount Avenue in Watseka during elamentry and high school. My brother, Bill, and me all played and ran around together most of that time. A couple of stories that stick out in my mind go like this. one of Bill's relatives brought an old cushman box scooter by for rides one day, so we all desided to take a ride, at the same time, so there we were the driver, Bill, David, and me(hanging on just above the tail light). Another time we all desided to make a raft and float on the creek, just like the pioneers, only problem with our plan was poor engineering, yes it floated, but with the 3 of us on it the water level above the deck was knee deep. But it was still fun. Another time we all were playing cowboys and indians in the pasture behind our house, and we desided to build a log cabin so the cowboys had something to defend. as it turned out we only had enough wooden fence posts to make it armpit high on a kid, so it became a log doughtout. That made cowboys and indians more fun, for a while any way, but when the Indians started using flaming spears the log doughtout went up in flames. One of the neighbors called the fire department to put it out, while that was happening a news reporter showed up. The next day it was in the paper as pioneer log cabin up in flames due to flaming Indian attack. It was fun to be a kid here, then. God Speed My Friend.

I remember Dan taking or was involved in one of his two weddings and Bill and His family was at ours in 1968. I heard alot of these stories through the years. Great memories, and it was nice to have Lory and Donna living next door for awhile a few years ago, Sure do miss the old neighbors in the neighborhood. A lot of changes but I guess that is suppose to happened. It was nice that He stopped by to visit the last time He was in town to see Lory He came by here to shoot the breeze. So sorry for your loss to His two sisters, Donna and Lory and to his family in Texas. God bless you all and R.I. P. Bill you will be missed.
