

Willie Williams

November 28, 1955 - November 15, 2022

Willie Williams, 66, of Mercury, passed away on November 15th, 2022. He was born in Hereford TX to Alma Trotter & Henry E. Williams on November 28, 1955

Willie Williams loved his life immensely. You could tell how much by the beautiful smile that he always wore. This man never met a stranger. Willie or Bill as most knew him, spent his early days as a ranch cowboy. There was not a horse he couldn't ride or a steer that he couldn't rope . Once cowboying started to fade he took up a new hobby as a welding inspector. He built many rigs, critiqued many welds, and made even more friends. Bill love to spend his free time cooking outside by the fire, laughing with friends and telling jokes. He had a gift of reciting some of the best poems you've ever heard. When the music would start to play this man loved to two step-he really knew his way around a dance floor. He will be sorely missed for the rest of our days.

Willie is preceded in death by his parents Henry & Alma Williams, and sisters Joyce Duncan & Floria Swanson.

Willie is survived by his partner Gwen Brush, son Clayton Williams & spouse Nyra, of Uruma City, Okinawa Japan, daughter Jessica Fioto of Frisco TX, brother Jerry Williams & spouse Michelle of Wichita, Kansas, sister Bea Reynolds & spouse Ennis (deceased) of Three Forks, Montana. He is also survived by grandchildren Peyton, Jaxson & Aiden.

Funeral service will be held at Mercury Baptist Church at 12pm, Monday, November 21, 2022. Burial will be at Cowboy Cemetery to follow.

Funeral arrangements are entrusted to Heritage Funeral Home of Brady.
