

Wilma Rae Edwards

September 14, 2016

Wilma Rae Edwards, 82, passed away in her home in San Saba, Texas on Wednesday, September 14, 2016. Services will held on Friday, September 16, 2016 at 10:30 A.M. at San Saba at First Baptist Church. Interment to follow at Harris Cemetery in San Saba, Texas.

Rae was born to Elie and Wilma Ritzman on July 3rd, 1934 in Pocatello, Idaho. Rae married Eddie Edwards on August 18, 1977 in Reno Nevada. Eddie and Rae were long time members of San Saba First Baptist Church. After high school she began her career at Fram where she was a Quality Control Specialist retiring after 31 years. Rae loved gardening and was a member of the San Saba Garden Club for many years. She volunteered with the San Saba Food Bank where she enjoyed helping people.

She is survived by her husband, Eddie of San Saba, 1 son: David Edwards of Syracuse, Utah. 3 daughters: Melissa Elliott, husband Gary of Decatur, TX, Carlen Wilsey of Olympia, Washington, and Casey Luzzio of Trego, Montana along with 1 granddaughter: Christine Bernard, husband Marc of Albuquerque, NM. 1 brother: Andrew Ritzman, wife, Ellen and 1 sister: Linda Bowden.

She is preceded in death by her parents and son-in law: Arzie Elliott
In lieu of flowers the family request donations be made to the San Saba First Baptist Church.

Please view Mrs. Edwards online memorial at heritagefuneraltx.com

Tribute Wall

“ I will miss my mother. She was an awesome person ”

Casey Luzzo - October 11, 2016 at 05:50 PM